Air Holdings chairman stands down

Air Holdings Limited announced recently that R. L. Cumming, who continued his service with the group beyond the normal age of retirement, had expressed a wish to be relieved of his appointment as chairman and chief executive. His services will remain available as a director and consultant.

He is succeeded as chairman by Sir

Nicholas Cayzer.

R. L. Cumming was educated at Whitehall High School and the University of Glasgow. He joined Alirowk Limited in 1935 as chief accountant and became secretary of the company in 1936. When British United Airways was formed from Airwork in 1960, the joined the PUA board as financial for the boards of a number of companies of the boards of a number of companies.

He became chairman of the AH parent board in October 1969.

McNee a director

G. McNee has been appointed to the boards of The Clan Line Steamers Ltd., and The Union-Castle Mail Steamship Co. Ltd.
