

With the reopening of the Suez Canal to British shipping, the sailing of the "Kenya Castle" on 29th May, 1957, reopened the Round Africa Service, this vessel proceeding outward via the Canal and homeward via the Cape. She called at Gibraltar, Marseilles and Genoa on the outward voyage and carried from London to Genoa the Hon. Anthony and Hon. Mrs. Cayzer.

