

Cabinda, on the Portuguese West African coast, was visited by a Group vessel for the first time when the Clan Cumming called there homewards in September. This photograph, taken by Seaman I. Hari Pada Chakraborty, shows the difficulty of loading timber from lighters