

where he was assistant barman, in 1948, and since then has been assistant to the store-keeper at Southampton. On sailing days he has been a familiar figure on board in his uniform of baggage master.

New entrants

J. W. Hughes (third officer); M. S. Webb, M. D. O'Dea, P. A. R. Markland, J. Martell, D. M. Garbett (radio officers); G. Hawkes (carpenter); D. Brown, Z. Haque, D. Morgan (fourth engineer officers); F. Allen, C. Aviss, J. Boule, C. Compton, E. Cordell, A. Craig, D. Davies, A. Fountain, H. Fox, G. Kalsey, R. Kingston, M. Malone, B. Mayer, M. Munro A. MacCallum, J. McKee, P. Sumner, P. Turnbull, D. Vickers, G. Wimbush (junior engineer officers); R. J. Atkins, J. McCormac, J. Vadsaria (junior second engineer officers); R. Crowe, M. Lindridge (second refrigerating engineer officers); M. Rees, C. Roscoe, K. Stevenson, A. Wilson (third refrigerating engineer officers); D. H. Fidler (chief electrical engineer officer); J. Connell, J. Harper, E. Parker, J. Semple (junior electrical engineer officers); E. A. Durrant, K. F. Jackson (purser/catering officers); A. B. Ward, R. R. H. Wise (assistant purser/catering officers); Miss P. N. Ryder (pursers clerk); J. G. Tickner (junior purser).

Bert Crimble, BEM

Our congratulations go to Bert Crimble, chief bedroom steward Pendennis Castle, on his award of the British Empire Medal in the Birthday Honours List.

He joined Union-Castle Line in 1938 in Stirling Castle on which ship he served throughout the war. He then transferred to Athlone Castle where he was bedroom steward for 12 years, joining Pendennis Castle on her second voyage. He has served there ever since.

■ Second officer G. H. McLaren (ex-Southampton Castle) married Miss Irene Boyd at St. Matthew's Church, Paisley, on May 30. A reception was held at Paisley Town Hall.

■ The 1,000th student recently took the British Shipping Federation's supervisor's course for petty officers. To mark the milestone, Patrick Clarke (bosun's mate, Cayzer Irvine) was presented with a BSF tie by Sir William Godrington (centre, Cayzer Irvine). At right is K. C. A. Walton, joint course leader for the BSF.

■ Gadets, families and guests gathered aboard Clan Sutherland in London on May 29. Among the groups were (at right) cadet N. Caborn, cadet C. Cooke, Mrs. and Miss Cooke.

■ Prizewinning students at the Nautical Catering College, Liverpool, at a presentation on July 22 by R. C. Miller (third from right, Cayzer Irvine's catering manager, cargo ships and assistant manager, Liverpool). Miller, governor of the college and president of the Association of Marine Catering Superintendents, is accompanied by H. Hambling (fourth from right, regional manager of the BSF) and N. Lee (extreme right, acting principal of the college).

