

■ It had to happen. No sooner had we all become used to topless girls on Calendars and other advertising material, than they all started to cover up again. So the Hotel San Antonio, Lanzarote, and other Hoteles Canarios properties, produced this well-covered beauty for their 1974 wall calendar—covered, that is, with you-know-who's very wet tee-shirt as she emerges from the hotel swimming pool. Hoteles Canarios wouldn't give us the lady's phone number, but their story is that she always goes swimming in a tee-shirt, and having used the San Antonio model, she just wouldn't be seen in any other. Her name is Sue Longhurst.
