

End of Mail Service Entertainment

The Chairman and Directors of Union-Castle gave a luncheon on board Windsor Castle at Southampton on August 10 prior to her last sailing in the Mail Service. Amongst those who attended were The Mayor and Mayoress of Southampton, The Bishop of London and Mrs. Ellison, and Sir Humphrey Blowne, Chairman of British Transport Docks Board.

At ports along the South African coast buffet luncheons were held on board Windsor Castle for those who had assisted in the Mailship Service. These functions were attended by the Mayors, Port Captains, Chief Pilots, Inspector of Customs etc. of each port.

Cayzer Irvine, South Africa, entertained long serving officers and ratings from Windsor Castle to cocktails at the Mount Nelson Hotel, Cape Town on September 4 and 5.
