

A glimpse below decks. The Windsor Castle is powered by twin screw double reduction high pressure turbines of pametrada design supplied with steam from three Babcock & Wilcox selectable superheat boilers having steam conditions of 600 lb. per square inch and 950°F., fitted with fully automatic combustion control

