“Miss Cape Province”

“Nothing like that ever happened when I was at sea,” a retired shipmaster wistfully confided to the Editor on viewing this picture of the lighter side of life on board. The occasion was a visit of the semi-finalists in the “Miss Cape Province” section of the “Miss Union” contest to the Winchester Castle whilst the vessel was in Cape Town. Stepping out in the March sunshine with the contestants are Captain R. A. D. Cambridge and Miss Anne Fletcher-Randall, Purserette
