

Forster—Watson
Leaving St. Mary's Church, Hook-with-Warsash, Southampton, after their wedding on 23rd October, 1963, are Mr. M. W. P. Forster, Third Officer, Clan Macnab, and his bride, the former Miss Gillian M. Watson

An
 all-time high

Photo by courtesy of Evening Times

Shaw—Scott
Pictured in their car after their wedding at Victoria Tollcross Church, Glasgow, on 28th February are Mr. Donald Shaw, Assistant Carpenter, Clan Macintyre, and the former Miss Jess Scott

During a recent visit of the Rotherwick Castle to Cape Town, Mr. D. P. Cousins, Third Officer, became engaged to Miss Patricia Mann of Goodwood. At a party held on board the vessel Captain C. W. Armstrong presented the young couple with a set of Stuart crystal glasses on behalf of himself and his officers

Mr. D. Smith, Purser of the Windsor Castle, has forwarded this photograph taken at the end of the Auction on the ship's January southbound run. The total of £1,813 is a new record for the Company's ships and Seamen's Charities benefited to the extent of £181. This was largely due to the efforts of the Auctioneer, Mr. H. F. Taylor, a First Class Round Voyage Passenger, who is pictured during the proceedings with Mr. K. Smith, First Class Deck Steward

DAVID FUNNELL'S EXAM SUCCESS

Mr. David J. C. Funnell has been awarded the Late Captain Charles H. Brown Memorial Prize 1963. Out of approximately 2,000 entries Mr. Funnell was "deemed to have made the best performance of the year in the examination for the Second Mate's Certificate". He passed his examination in October, 1963, obtaining 97.3% marks for the written work.

An ex H.M.S. Conway Cadet, David is at present serving as Fourth Officer on the Athlone Castle. He was presented with his award, following his vessel's arrival home at the end of March, at the King Edward VII Nautical College where he had studied prior to taking his Certificate.