Launch of the Drakenstein

The refrigerated cargo liner Drakenstein was launched on Wednesday, 18th December, 1963, from the Carlsdyke Yard of The Greenock Dockyard Co. Ltd. The naming ceremony was performed by Mrs. J. G. Finlay, wife of the Deputy Chairman and Joint Managing Director of South African Marine Corporation Ltd.

Sir Nicholas and Lady Cayzer, Lord Rotherwick, The Hon. Anthony Cayzer, Mr. J. S. Bevan and Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Thomson attended the launch together with representatives of manufacturers in the export trade and a number of guests from the Republic of South Africa, including an official from the South African Embassy.

No. 504 on the Builders' order book, this vessel is the second of three sister ships built or being built by this yard for The British & Commonwealth Shipping Co. Ltd., to meet the express requirements of the South African Marine Corporation who will operate them on charter in the South African fruit trade.
