■ Above: Mrs. Leonara Welch, vice chairman of the Disabled Association, receiving a colour television from Capt. R. W. Thomson, donated by the sports and social club on board SA Oranje. From left to right, the chairman of Sembal House, a training home for the disabled, Michael Stokes, chairman of the leading hands club SA Oranje, Mrs. L. Welch and Capt. R. W. Thomson. Picture: H. J. Wood.

■ At right: a view of Durban Bay framed by a Windsor Castle lifebelt and taken while the mail ship was berthed at the Ocean Terminal in July. Lying forward of Windsor Castle and loading fruit for European ports is the 9,000-ton French refrigerated vessel Belouga, on long term charter from Chargeurs Reunis of Paris. Picture: Durban Publicity Association.

■ Below: Staff Commander A. Wigham, on the bridge of Windsor Castle, with a pretty girl viewing Durban harbour through his telescope. Both of these lower pictures were part of a new series taken from the mailship by Durban Publicity Association, for later use in publications describing Durban's attractions.
