

■ Above: J. C. McNeil talking with fleet manager Capt. R. Hart on March 19, when he was promoted from second engineer (passenger) to chief engineer (cargo). Picture: T. Clark.

■ Left: A. Cunningham, who was promoted on April 2 from second engineer to first engineer officer. Picture: T. Clark.

■ Below left: D. Aris, assistant technical manager, Southampton, and A. Macintyre, chief engineer of Southampton Castle, congratulate James Anstermable (left) on his appointment as senior second engineer of the vessel. The picture was taken in the engine control room.

■ Below right: D. Woodford being congratulated on his appointment as engine room storekeeper, Windsor Castle, also by D. Aris, Southampton. The appointment followed completion of a 13-week course provided by the Government training centre at Southampton. Woodford was presented with a certificate for achieving first class results.

■ Foot of page, left: ex-bosun L. L. Walker wearing the British Empire Medal presented to him for services to the shipping industry. The presentation was made during October 1973 at Lancaster House, London, by the Rt. Hon. Lord Drumalbyn (left, former Minister Without Portfolio). Picture: DTT, Crown Copyright.

■ Foot of page, right: on board Clan Ramsay, engineer cadet A. Coleman is congratulated by fleet manager Capt. R. Hart after being presented with a chronometer-type watch. The watch was a prize for cadet Coleman's work while at the Southampton School of Navigation, Warsash. Picture: Southern Newspapers.

