

The mailships picture page

■ Stan and Linda Dudley, formerly dancers on board Windsor Castle, discuss the fine points of a golf shot in South African sunshine. Their passion for golf was made public recently by Bruce Heilbut of the Weekend Argus, Cape Town, who revealed that they sometimes played as much as 54 holes a day while the mailship was on the coastal run. In fact, the story goes that they ran away to sea with Union-Castle so as to get some business in between the games of golf. Stan, holder of many professional dancing titles, and Linda were with the mailship for three years before coming ashore in May. Picture: The Argus.

■ Actor David Tomlinson returned by mailship from 15 months in South Africa where he has been appearing in two plays, A Friend Indeed by William Douglas-Home and Noel Coward's Song at Twilight, both presented by the Academy Theatre Company, Johannesburg. He was met at Southampton by his wife (actress Audrey Freedman) and four sons (from left) Henry, William, James and David. The family is pictured aboard Edinburgh Castle, April 8. Picture: W. G. Woolldridge.

■ HRH Princess Alice, Countess of Athlone, arrived in Southampton in the flagship Windsor Castle on March 25. Before going ashore she posed for this CLANSMAN magazine picture by photographer W. G. Woolldridge. It was the completion of a round trip in the mailships; Princess Alice went out to Cape Town early this year in Edinburgh Castle.