

manifest

Retirements

Capt. E. C. Martyn retired on May 31 aged 60. Capt. Martyn joined the South American Saint Line in November 1936 as third officer. He was promoted to Master in January 1947 and transferred to B&C in October 1965. His last command before leave and retirement was Clan Graham.

A. Williams, AB, retired on August 1 aged 63, after serving with the company for 15 years.

Diplomas and awards

Congratulations to B. Wheeler, engineer cadet, who has won the BP Prize awarded at Leith Nautical College for the cadet showing the most progress during the two year course.

Congratulations to the following engineer officer cadets of the company who are training at the Plymouth College of Further Education:

First year diploma engineer cadet R. J.

■ Below: one of 15 or more long-serving crew members who can claim 98 or more of Windsor Castle's 100 voyages is leading seaman R. L. Jones, seen here at Cape Town. For list, see column three, page 12. Picture: Transocean Photographic.

Surprise cake for century voyage

■ Above: gala nights in both classes, north and south bound, marked the 100th voyage of Windsor Castle in June (see CLANSMAN 26). Vanessa Wells (hairdresser) was the surprise that popped out of a century cake, to be welcomed as "Miss 100 Voyages" by Commodore H. Charnley, Chef. H. Laight and baker J. Leslie (in picture) then sliced the cake for Vanessa to hand to passengers. Picture: Transocean Photographic.

■ Below: seen in the ship's dining room—five crew members who have been with Windsor Castle since her maiden voyage. Left to right: Robert Rumbolds, Allan Brierley, W. (Dusty) Miller, Brian Daves, Peter Morrison. Dusty Miller told South African pressmen: "You can say that each one of us has walked 1,400,000 miles." Picture: Die Burger.

