

manifest

Seagoing supplement to CLANSMAN magazine

Examination successes

Congratulations to the following B&C staff and cadets who have recently gained academic success—

Ordinary National Diploma: cadets M. P. Crane, G. M. Foot, A. J. Grieves, M. Lyons, S. C. McDowall, I. A. Ramsay and P. W. Self (OND, mechanical engineering; all studying at Southampton College of Technology); cadets P. A. Cross, R. D. Harris, W. F. Johnstone, M. J. Love and C. S. Scriven (OND, mechanical engineering; all studying at Plymouth College of Further Education); cadet S. L. Hopkins (OND, mechanical engineering; studying at South Shields Marine & Technical College). Ordinary National Certificate: cadet A. C. Chivers (ONC supplementary endorsement award; studying at Poplar Technical College).

City & Guilds: cadets G. I. Cormack, M. P. Patterson and B. McWheeler (C&G marine engineering technician certificate; studying at Leith Nautical College).

Advanced Technicians Certificate: cadet I. J. Thompson (studying at South Shields Marine & Technical College).

■ Cadet
R. P. Gribble.

First nautical science HND course

Congratulations to R. P. Gribble on his award of the Higher National Diploma in Nautical Science at the Southampton School of Navigation, Warsash. He started the course in September 1971 when he joined the company as a navigating cadet, and sat the final Examination in May 1974. Five candidates took part; three were successful. This was the first course of its kind in nautical science.

Recent retirements

B. Atkinson, purser catering officer, retired because of ill health on October 31 1974, aged 59. He joined the company in October 1947.

W. C. Black, purser catering officer, retired November 1 1974, aged 63, after 35 years service.

H. Clarke, senior master at arms, retired on September 30 1974, aged 63, after 14 years service.

■ The SA Oranje cricket team has met with "mixed success", according to Jack Eastmond. Left to right (back row): A. Pettie, fourth radio officer; J. Tunstall, purser; J. Third, second officer; P. Reynolds, third purser catering; W. Fleetwood, purser catering; N. Gray, musician. Front row: A. Wigham, staff commander; W. de Villiers, fourth officer; J. Price, extra second officer; J. Matthews, dancer. Picture: P. McCowen, Trans-ocean Photographic.

H. Grainge, chef, retired on October 31 1974, aged 61, after 14 years service.

Capt. G. S. Rowlands retired from company service because of ill health on October 31 1974, aged 55. Capt. Rowlands joined as a cadet in March 1936 and was promoted to Master in May 1960.

Prizes and awards

Congratulations to engineer cadet M. P. Crane, who was awarded the Cayzer Irvine prize (a watch) and the Shaw Savill mathee matics prize (£5 book tokens) on conclusion of his OND course at Southampton School of Navigation and Southampton Technical College. He is now serving in King James.

Also to engineer cadet I. A. Ramsay who was awarded a voyage in the STA schooner Malcolm Miller—a prize sponsored by the Institute of Marine Engineers for cadets whose work is above average during their Phase I college training.

■ Presentations were made to James Smart, in-charge bedroom steward, on board SA Oranje, to mark the end of 49 years continuous service. They were made by crew, leading hands, his fellow bedroom stewards and stewardesses, and by officers (seen below) who knew him well. Officers making the presentation are, left to right: T. Stallard, chief electrician; R. Gemmell, chief engineer; B. Eastland, chef; W. Fleetwood, purser catering; J. Eastmond, chief purser; J. Winckle, third purser catering; I. Purich, third purser; A. Wigham, staff commander; P. Batt, third purser; J. Tunstall, second purser; R. Ledbury, second purser catering; P. Lovell, first engineer. Seated: G. Cartwright, purser. Picture: Malcolm Haddock, Transocean Photographic.

