

■ Above left: wedding day cheers for Christopher Gyue (first class head waiter, Penderennis Castle) who was married to Jean O'Neil at Rutherglen in June. The couple met on shipboard when Jean (whose stage name is Irene Campbell) was doing two voyages as entertainer with her partner Danny Regan. Best man at the wedding was Ray Pindextre, a waiter from Penderennis Castle. Jean is well known in Scottish theatre and TV as dancer, producer and comedienne. Chris Gyue has become stepfather to two daughters, of whom the younger (16) has just started at drama school.

■ Right: another girl snapped by those enthusiasts at British Island Airways. She is Michelle Fisher, who won the Southampton heat of the Jersey Holiday Queen Contest, and flew BIA Southampton - Jersey to compete in finals at West Park Pavilion. Michelle, well known as a singer in the Southampton area, has also made a number of gramophone records.

Clues Across

- 1 Whipped a tall fledge (11)
- 8 A strong and offensive smell (11)
- 11 Ill-natured (4)
- 12 Greeting passes test and becomes a nimbus (4)
- 13 Pulling with force at sea (7)

- 15 Palliate to flatter (7)
- 16 A mining skip with runners instead of wheels, used in Ruislip East? (5)
- 17 Low card sounds as if it carries a salver on the third branch of a stags horn (4)
- 18 Ripe fairy (4)
- 19 Father addressed respectfully backwards in France (5)

- 21 First Scotsman on the road? (7)
- 22 Valid success on the sands (7)
- 23 Yugoslavian river as an answer (4)
- 26 German count (4)
- 27 That which can be crossed, sideways (11)
- 28 Instrument for measuring temperature (11)

Clansman Crossword

Clues Down

- 2 Brilliant Australian parrot (4)
- 3 Directs controls (7)
- 4 Great northern diver, crested grebe, worthless fellow (4)
- 5 Terrible (7)
- 6 Produce designs on copper (4)
- 7 Dancing master, thirsty Hume? (11)
- 8 Of a bluish or sea-green appearance like glue accents (11)
- 9 Crockery (11)
- 10 Prognosticate (11)
- 14 Glitter found in eagle ambience (5)
- 15 Shoot forward young fellow (5)
- 19 Idle conversation (7)
- 20 The amount thoroughly wetted (7)
- 24 Waggish (4)
- 25 Three who ran riot (4)
- 26 Ogle eyed having joy (4)

by
Malcolm
Smith
(Greenly
House, London)

For solution
see page 31

