

Check your address for CLANSMAN mailing

We are about to reissue the CLANSMAN distribution to make sure you are getting your copy at the right address. Please help us by checking the name and address on your envelope, and let us know at once if there is any error.

If you have never paid a Registration Fee you may shortly receive a registration form from us. Please respond quickly so that we can eliminate unsorted circulation in these days of high postage rates.

B&C's first married couple serving at sea

Faye and Dallas Sutton have become B&C's first married couple to work together as officers in the same ship on a permanent basis.

Faye Moldenhauer joined SA Vaal in April 1973 as pursereette and met Dallas a month later when he was transferred to the same department. In May this year, they were married at Faye's home in East London.

Dallas' stepfather is B&C master Capt. Stanley Hay, and at the beginning of this year Dallas served under him in Clan Robertson—an experience which he described as "not bad".

Another first goes to Keith McGinty, purser, who has taken his wife to sea in a working capacity as a stewardess aboard Clan Robertson, which sailed in July.

■ Faye and Dallas Sutton on board SA Vaal at Southampton. Picture: H. J. Wood.

■ Miss Cathy Elson, of Sterling Hydraulics Limited export department, was married to Robert Burton at St. Martin's Church, North Perrott, on March 29. Cathy joined the Sterling group at Crewkerne, Somerset, in August 1967 from Yeovil Technical College. Since then, her department has taken over the documentation. The new Mrs. Cathy Burton is still working with Sterling. Her new home is a country cottage near North Perrott.

■ On June 14, Karen Ann Saunders (medical secretary), was married to Timothy James Culpin (son of the late Capt. A. J. Culpin, Union-Castle marine superintendent), at Sidcup, Holy Trinity Lamorbey. The couple met while still at school.

■ Michael MacNamara, ship's surgeon Pendennis Castle, was married in July to Mrs. P. V. Shans. They met last year on board Reina del Mar during her Caribbean cruise. The wedding was in Bridport. They will live in Charnmouth in the West Country. Picture: H. J. Wood.

personal column

Marriages

Miss Jill Sanders (telephonist, Southampton) was married to T. Angel on July 12, at St. James Church, West End.

GLASGOW—We were delighted to see former colleague Gerry McCall during his brief return from Durban for his marriage to Joan Heggie, also ex-Hope Street staff, writes Aileen Struthers. Several old ILS friends attended the wedding and our good wishes were suitably conveyed for the couple's future happiness in South Africa. Gerry appears to have settled down well.

Patricia Stalker, typist ILS Glasgow, was married on Saturday June 26 to David Crombie and this too was an occasion attended by some of her B&C colleagues. The young couple started married life by honeymooning in one of the Tendimus caravans.

Engagement

Congratulations to D. J. Pearson (financial accounts GH) on his engagement to Miss A. O. Lingham (pensions department GH) on July 18.

New arrival for Hazel

LIVERPOOL—In June we said our farewells and gave our good wishes to Hazel Cheney who left us to take up full-time duties as a housewife and await the arrival of her first baby, records R. Hatton.

Hazel joined the Clan Line on August 10, 1959 as a shorthand typist. Like her husband, Alan, whom many readers will remember as a stalwart of the cricket team, Hazel took part in the sporting activities of the company. She was a loyal member of the tennis section for a number of years and made many friends among our sporting colleagues in London and Southampton.