

■ Causeway, seen here at the Seaforth Grain Terminal, Merseyside, in July, is one of two Swedish-built bulk carriers now manned by B&C officers and crew (see crew lists, Manifest supplement). Causeway and her identical sister ship Bonnieway, 59,700 dwt each, are owned by the Newgate Shipping Company, London, and are London-registered. Picture: David Aris.

■ One of Bristow Helicopters' Aberdeen-based S61N aircraft picking up part of a medical research hut for transportation to a hilltop near Braemar, Scotland. The aircraft was flown by Captains Russ Smith and Phill Barriball, and the hut will be used in research to assess the effects of cold on human responses.
